

JOHNSTOWN SENIOR CENTER

TITLE VI PROGRAM

Adopted May 27, 2016

Notifying the Public of Rights Under Title VI

Part 1

Johnstown Senior Center is a non-profit organization providing social activities for individuals 55 and over. These activities: nutritional meals, exercise classes, entertainment, speakers, trainings and day trips and excursions. According to Colorado Census 2015 and 2016 the total population for Johnstown was 9887 and for those 55 and older it was 279. They also reported the numbers by ethnicity in Johnstown. White 8,839 (89%), Hispanic 1,659 (16%), other race 619 (6%) and two or more races 245 (2%). Our center has approximately 95 individuals attending one or more of the activities and I would estimate under 1% are of Hispanic or other races. The amount of individuals with some type of handicap would be 45% or more.

Notices are posted on the Johnstown Senior Center, Community centers bulletin board, and Town of Johnstown Website, townofjohnstown.com. Click under our community, then scroll down to senior center with information on how to file a Title VI complaint.

Title VI complaints, Invest, Lawsuits

Our organization has not received any Complaints, Investigations or Lawsuits. Since Johnstown Senior Center became a 501-c-3 in 2003, there have been no complaints, investigations or lawsuits filed with the organization.

Membership of Non-Elected Committees and Councils

Johnstown Senior center does not have a transit board in place. There are no non-elected board members.

Public Participation Element

Participation is valued at our center. The center Program Coordinator listens to requests of activities that are of interest to them, especially if they are out of town excursions. One of the ways that we at the center provide services to those that are unable to maneuver easily, we have a wheel chair available to assist them and have recently purchased two portable battery operated scooters for them to use.

Johnstown Senior Center Advisory board approved the purchase. Currently there are nine board (9) members, one member is under the age of 55 and is of Hispanic origin. We value her input at our board meetings and is currently our secretary.

Advisory board meetings take place the first Tuesday of the month, at 10:30 am at the senior center, 101 W Charlotte St, Johnstown, CO. Individuals who want to attend one of the meetings may do so, and with two day prior notice they may address the board with any of their concerns or suggestions at 970-587-5251. These meetings are posted one week prior in our newsletter, five days prior in the local newspaper, and is posted in the Town of Johnstown's webpage. The center is located in a building owned by the Town of Johnstown and is handicapped accessible. Our meetings follow the same format and average the same percentage of participation.

According to a 2008 Johnstown Transportation Master Plan, opportunities for alternative transportation in the community are currently limited. Currently public transit service in the community is not provided. The Weld County Department of Human Services (Weld County Area Agency on Aging) provides van service for elderly and handicapped residents of the Johnstown area on an appointment basis. Transportation for our senior nutrition program is also provided by private transports in the community on Wednesdays. There are three Park and Ride lots located along I-25 at interchanges (SH 56, SH 60, and SH 402) in the Johnstown study area.

Alternative transportation is provided by volunteers who are registered with Retired Senior Volunteer Program out of Weld county, or Senior Resources out of Greeley. All volunteers for Johnstown live in our local area.

Funding for our center come from grants. Weld County Commissioners granted our center in 2016 $1000, Greeley/Weld Senior Foundation gave us a grant of $350 for printing supplies in 2016, and the Town of Johnstown budgets $4000 for fuel, insurance, maintenance for our van, and also provides the building we are located at, electricity, water, and cleaning. Last year in 2015, our center received a generous memorial donation in the amount of $10,000. We used part of that money to purchase the riding scooters.

The senior coordinator in the past has been on a couple of transit advisory meetings. With a limited resource for transportation in our rural area, we rely heavily on volunteers to transport individuals to our meal site. Reaching out to minorities and LEP individuals is a continued effort on the part of the senior center.

TITLE VI COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Any person who believes she or he has been discriminated against on the basis of race, color, or national origin by the Johnstown Senior Center Transit Authority (hereinafter referred to as “the Authority”) may file a Title VI complaint by completing and submitting the agency’s Title VI Complaint Form. The Johnstown Senior Center Transit Authority investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. The Authority will process complaints that are complete. Once the complaint is received, the Authority will review it to determine if our office has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgment letter informing her/him whether the complaint will be investigated by our office.

The Authority has 90 days to investigate the complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, the Authority may contact the complainant. The complainant has 30 business days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the investigator assigned to the case. If the investigator is not contacted by the complainant or does not receive the additional information within 30 business days, the Authority can administratively close the case. A case can be administratively closed also if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue their case.

After the investigator reviews the complaint, she/he will issue one of two letters to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF). A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed. An LOF summarizes the allegations and the interviews regarding the alleged incident, and explains whether any disciplinary action, additional training of the staff member, or other action will occur. If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision, she/he has 30 days after the date of the letter or the LOF to do so.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 2059
